

Lab Hand-out 12

Array as Input to Function

Task

Write a C++ program to compute Sum, average (out of 10), percentage, maximum, minimum and standard deviation of a user entered array elements. Make function for each computation, call it in main, by asking user to enter the type of computation they want and using switch case depending upon the user entered choice.